→Special Directions for Procuring Church Furniture.←

FIRST.—Please give sketch, showing size of room to be seated, and note the dimensions in figures.

SECOND.—Give the location and width of Aisles and Pulpit Platform in figures.

THIRD.—State whether the floor is flat, or inclined, or bowled shape.

FOURTH.—If bowled for Circular, or Octagonal Seating, give both the inclination of floor and the radius to back of first pew, and, also, the number of circles on level floor below and above the incline, as the pew ends are cut to fit the inclination.

FIFTH.—If inclined, give the inclination to each foot.

SIXTH.—Please state your preference of material, whether Ash, Oak, Cherry or Walnut.

SEVENTH.—State whether the pews are to be cushioned, or the seats hollowed for use without cushions.

EIGHTH.—Please give the number of the Pew End or other article desired.

NOTICE.

Unless otherwise directed, our estimates will be made on Ash Pews, with curved backs  $20\frac{1}{2}$  inches high, and hollowed seats 15 inches wide; these are our standard dimensions.

We make plans for the seating of Audience and Sunday School rooms if desired, and our standard space for each pew is 32 inches, and for Sunday School Seating 30 inches, if settees or chairs are used.

Our best references are the many churches furnished in the last 22 years, and we take pleasure in referring you to Pastors or Trustees, in places named in different parts of the United States.

Respectfully,

GEO. H. GRANT.
A. SWAIN.

By Permission, we Publish a Few Letters, Expressing the Favor with which our Furniture is Received:

REV. L. E. PRENTISS, Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Fremont, O., writes, by order of the Official Board, April 14, 1886:

The Church Furniture furnished by you for the Methodist Episcopal Church, in this city, is in every way what was contracted for, and gives entire satisfaction. (Pew End, No. 201, page 6.)

REV. EDWARD J. REGENNAS, Hope, Ind., writes, March 4, 1886:

It may be gratifying to you, and it is a great satisfaction to me, to state that the Pews that you furnished us nearly eleven years ago, are just as good as when set up. Not a joint cracked, nor a piece shrunk, but really as good as at first. (Pew End, No. 200, page 7.)

D. B. KLINE, Chairman of Building Committee, of Olivet Presbyterian Church, Louisville, Ky., writes, March 19, 1886:

It gives us pleasure to state that the Pews furnished by you in our church have in every way proven satisfactory. The material excellent, workmanship first-class, and your employes gentlemen. (Pew End, No. 24, page 4.)

REV. C. A. R. JANVIR, Pastor of Fifth Presbyterian Church, Trenton, N. J., writes, March 17, 1886:

In response to your favor of March 15, it gives me great pleasure to say that it would not be possible for any set of Church Furniture to give better satisfaction than the Ash Pews, Pulpit, Communion Table, Chairs, etc., which you put in our new church last December. I can not speak in terms too high of the solidity, comfort and beauty of the Pews, nor of the beauty and cheapness of the whole set. I have heard no one speak of our furniture except in terms of warmest praise. The best of it is, that every day adds to the richness of the coloring of the wood. I am glad to do anything I can to bring such goods as yours to the notice of others. (Pew End, No. 25, page 4.)

J. P. BEYER, No. 197 Manjer street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

The Church Furniture you have put into our new church is indeed as convenient as ornamental to our new church building. (Pew End, No. 67, page 10.)

REV. A. Z. MCGOGNEY, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Connellsville, Pa., writes, March 22, 1886:

The Church Furniture received from you more than a year ago gives us the best of satisfaction. Reading Desk, Flower Stands, Communion Table, Pulpit Chairs, and Pews, are admired by all.

CHARLES VIELE, Chairman of Building Committee of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Evansville, Ind., writes, March 16, 1886:

The Seats which your firm has made for St. Paul's Episcopal Church, this city, have been received and are placed in the church. Your work has given us entire satisfaction in all respects. (Pew End, No. 31, page 9.)

L. S. STRASSER, Chairman of Building Committee, of Parnassus Presbyterian Church, Parnassus, Pa., writes, March 18, 1886:

The Three-ply Curved Back and Curved Seat Circular Ash Pews you put into our new building last year have given entire satisfaction. They are superior to any in this section and equal to any in the city of Pittsburgh. (Pew End, No. 25, page 4.)

REV. A. J. WAUGH, Pastor, and JOSEPH MASURY, THOMAS S. HARBECK, and ALFRED ELWELL, Building Committee of Presbyterian Church, Willoughby, O., write, February 13, 1886:

The Church Seating and Organ Rail furnished by you for our new church are in place, and have been sufficiently used by us to give a recommendation of them corresponding with their merits. All are unanimous in their praise. The Organ Rail is admired by all. (Pew End, No. 25, page 4.)

D. A. ARTER, J. J. WIRSING and JAS. A. HUNTER, Building Com., M. E. Church, Greensburg, Pa., write, March 18, 1886:

We take great pleasure in recommending your firm to persons needing anything in your line. You furnished the seating for the M. E. Church of this place to our entire satisfaction. (Pew End, No. 25, page 4.)

REV. P. A. STUDDIFORD, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Lambertville, N. J., writes, March 18, 1886:

The Pews are all that could be desired for proportion, taste and comfort, as well as thoroughness of work. (Pew End, No. 200, page 6.)
